The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with eighth notes and a half note, featuring a slur over the latter half and an accent (>) over the final note. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes with vertical accents (>) above each note.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth notes and a half note, including a slur and an accent (>) over the final note. The lower staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes with vertical accents (>) above each note.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with eighth notes and a half note, including a slur and an accent (>) over the final note. The lower staff continues the rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes with vertical accents (>) above each note. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs.
